THE PHILOSOPHY AND GOALS OF THE WAYNE COMMUNITY COLLEGE DENTAL ASSISTING PROGRAM

The philosophy of the Wayne Community College Dental Assisting Program

The philosophy of the Wayne Community College Dental Assisting Program is to provide a strong academic and practical education in dental assisting that will foster a desire to continue personal growth and maintain professional competence through life-long learning.

The goals of the Wayne Community College Dental Assisting Program

1. To prepare the students to function effectively as integral members of the dental health team fostering professional behavior and ethical values.
2. To prepare the students to perform general chairside assisting procedures and related office and laboratory procedures under the direction and supervision of a licensed dentist.
3. To help meet the community's need for qualified dental assistants.
4. To prepare the student to pass the Dental Assisting Certification Examination.

Student Success and Retention

Student retention and success are a priority at Wayne Community College. Obstacles to success may include the academic rigor of the program, extracurricular demands or dissatisfaction with your choice of this career path. Job shadowing should be strongly considered so that you are keenly aware of the professional responsibilities and duties associated with your career choice. Extracurricular demands such as full-time work schedules may also need to be reduced to allow the necessary study time required to be successful. A good support system is also important if you are involved in other extracurricular demands such as providing care for children or elders.

Credit/Clock Hour Conversion Programs

WCC offers some programs that are considered credit/clock hour conversion programs based on federal regulations set by the U.S. Department of Education. These programs fall under this regulation because all the required credit hours are not acceptable or transferable into a two-year degree or college transfer program. If you are enrolled in one of the credit/clock hour programs and you have been awarded the Federal Pell Grant, your award payment may be less than what is indicated on your award letter. The Dental Assisting program is a credit/clock hour conversion program.

DENTAL ASSISTING PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of the dental assisting program, the graduate will be able to:

Prepare students through didactic, laboratory, and clinical experiences to provide dental assisting services in a variety of dental settings.

Provide dental health related education to diverse community groups.

Demonstrate professionalism with patients, faculty, peers, community organizations and dental associations.

PHYSICAL AND COGNITIVE EXPECTATIONS OF A STUDENT DENTAL ASSISTANT

Dental Assisting (DA) is a practice discipline with cognitive, sensory, affective and psychomotor performance requirements. For the purposes of DA program compliance with the 1990 Americans with Disability Act, a qualified individual with a disability is one who with or without reasonable accommodation or modification, meets the eligibility requirements for participation in the DA program.

Admission to and progression in the DA program is not based on these standards. Rather, the standards should be used to assist each student in determining whether accommodation or modifications are necessary. Standards provide an objective measure upon which a student and the advisor base informed decisions regarding whether a student is “qualified” to meet the requirements. It is the responsibility of the applicant to read the technical standards carefully and to ask for clarification of any standard that is not understood.

If a student believes that he or she cannot meet one or more of the standards without accommodations or modifications, the dental faculty will determine on an individual basis, whether the necessary accommodations or modifications can be made in a reasonable manner. Both instructors and students must evaluate the standards continually throughout the program.

PHYSICAL AND EMOTIONAL STANDARDS

Dental Assisting (DA) students should possess and be able to demonstrate the following:

- 1. Critical Thinking: critical thinking ability sufficient for clinical judgment. For example, student must be able to identify cause – effect relationships in clinical situations; collect and analyze clinical and radiographic data to aid in problem solving; and assist in the development of dental treatment plans.
- 2. Interpersonal Skills: interpersonal abilities sufficient to interact with individuals, families, groups, etc., from a variety of social, emotional, cultural and intellectual backgrounds. For example, students shall establish rapport with clients/patients and dental team members.
- 3. Communication Skills: communication abilities sufficient for interaction with others in verbal and written form. For example, explain treatment procedures to patients; initiate preventative oral health teaching; document and interpret treatment rendered and patient/client responses.
- 4. Mobility: physical abilities sufficient to move from room to room and maneuver in small spaces; stand and walk for extensive periods of time. For example, moving from room to room in a clinic and laboratory areas. Must be able to sit in a fixed position for up to an hour while assisting with dental procedures.
- 5. Motor Skills: gross and fine motor abilities to assist in the provision of safe and effective care. For example, calibrate and use equipment, document care; position and move patients/clients; mix and dispense dental materials and perform expanded function dental procedures as allowed by applicable laws.

6. Hearing: auditory ability sufficient to monitor and assess health needs and communicate with patients and other members of the oral health care team. For example, hearing and recording blood pressure and operating handpieces for polishing.
7. Visual: visual ability sufficient for observation and assessment necessary in dental care. For example, observe patient/client responses, observe appearance and consistency of dental materials and determine shading and coloring of restorations.
8. Tactile: tactile ability sufficient for assessment. For example, performing functions related to dental materials as well as laboratory procedures and treatment procedures.
9. Weight-Bearing: ability to lift and manipulate/move 45-50 pounds daily. For example, positioning patients/clients and move equipment.
10. Cognitive Abilities: ability to be oriented to time, place and person; organize responsibilities and decisions. For example, students shall assess client/patient complaints and oral conditions and be able to assimilate and communicate information to other members of the treatment team.

WAYNE COMMUNITY COLLEGE COMMUNICABLE DISEASE POLICY OF STUDENTS

Wayne Community College is committed to assuring that all necessary training and precautions are taken with regard to communicable diseases. The Biohazard Exposure Control Plan and the Pandemic Preparedness Plan of Wayne Community College reflect our efforts to ensure the good health and safety of all employees and students. The College adopts this communicable disease policy for students in an effort to control communicable diseases and the threat of pandemics on campus based upon established rules and regulations of the N.C. Division of Health Services. Employees and employees of contractors or contracted services infected with a communicable disease have the responsibility of reporting this fact to the Director of Human Resources. Students infected with a communicable disease have the responsibility of reporting this fact to the Associate Vice President of Academic and Student Services or the Vice President of Continuing Education, as appropriate.

Communicable disease is an illness resulting from an infectious agent or its toxic products being transmitted directly or indirectly to a person from an infected person or animal through the agency of an intermediate animal, host, or vector, or through the inanimate environment. [N.C.G.S. 130A-2(1c)] Communicable Disease shall include, but is not limited to: Chickenpox, influenza, Infectious Mononucleosis, Conjunctivitis, Hepatitis A, B & D, Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS), Aids-related complex (ARC), positive HIV antibody status, Influenza, Measles, Meningitis, Tuberculosis, Whooping Cough, and sexually transmitted diseases.(N.C.G.S. 130A)

Persons who are infected with a communicable disease are expected to seek expert medical advice and are encouraged to advise local health authorities. Local health authorities should offer counseling to these persons about measures that can be taken to prevent the spread of infection and to protect their own health.

Persons who know, or have a reasonable basis for believing, that they are infected with a communicable disease have an ethical and legal obligation to behave in accordance with such knowledge to protect themselves and others. Medical information relating to the communicable disease of a student or employee will be disclosed to responsible college officials only on a strictly limited need-to-know basis. No person, group, agency, insurer, employer, or institution should be provided any medical information without the prior specific written consent of a student unless required by state and/or federal law. Furthermore, all medical information relating to the communicable diseases of students and employees will be kept confidential, according to state and federal law, including the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act.

If a student reports a communicable disease condition, the student may be excluded from the institution until an appropriate evaluation of the student's medical condition can be made. The evaluation may be made by a physician or a health department official and testing may be required if appropriate. Students in any Allied Health program may have additional requirements, as specified in each program's student handbook; therefore, these students should report all suspected communicable diseases.

The final determination of student's ability to remain in school will be made by the Vice President or Associate Vice President based upon professional medical evaluation results and recommendations. If a student is found to have a communicable disease, then the attendance of the student on campus or at any College activity will be prohibited until a satisfactory letter or certificate is obtained from one or more licensed physicians or public health officials stating that the student is not a health risk to employees and other students at the College.

The College's Biohazard Control Plan defines guidelines that will be followed in the event of an accidental exposure to bodily fluids or biohazards. Any such exposure should be reported immediately to the responsible faculty or staff person associated with the WCC activity involving such exposure and to the Student Activities Coordinator and an incident report must be completed.
